

A man had jumped off the High Level Bridge and was drowned, at the inquest "Sannon Racruter in giving evidence claimed that "Whiskey had done this." The coroners Jury however agreed that water did it, and if he had stuck to whiskey he might have been alive today.

Seeing a girl in a café with a cigarette holder at least fifteen inches long, "Sappy Hutter" remarked that he thought long draws were not fashionable nowadays.

"Many old hens are cockeyed."

Bill Bliver.

"The new car wonderful in the pickups"

Back A. Jowen.

Cobbie Nlarke wonders if the Iris sweetheart of a Hebraic gentleman may be called a Jews-Harp. We don't know but suggest that he ask Gatsy Pallagher.

"If on our theme we rightly think
There are five reasons why men drink:
Good wind, a friend or being dry,
(or lest, we should be bye and bye),
Or- Any other reason why.

Lill Winday

Gatsy Pallagher in a small-town hotel asked the clerk if there were no stoves to keep the rooms warm as his room was very cold. "Well said the clerk "there's a stove pipe running through the teacher's room, and I will ask her to leave her door open for you tonight".

"Some people have all the luck:

Sannon Racruther

The talk of women is usually about men: even their laugh is nothing but he: he: he:

Sarcue H. Rachan

"She lives in a Bowling Alley but I know she's never bold".

Brad L. Frick.

"Fast girls never get home first".

Woward Hright

“The girls at the High school made an unusually good showing, coming down the fire escape during drill.

Me Loy Rattern

Bert: - “That girl I was out with last night was certainly nice”.

Jack: “Yes mine walked home too”.

“Consternation is when people need nujol”

Mili Battews.

Sign on Whyte Avenue – Jack screws for hire, The Adjutant is now wondering if the Colonel has seen the advert.

“Salt Peter is the fellow who guards the pearly gates.”

Kelly Keil

“Horace McNure is a salesman because of being always on the road.”

Pliver Orcard

“Never alip is curved in pain, that cannot be kissed into smiles again.”

Woc. Dashburn

“I’m Sue full of life” remarked the “tommy” as he scratched himself vigorously.

Anna says she doesn’t pet – Analyze

“Revise your mailing list constantly and never let your wife see it”.

Wugh Ne Horben Natson

“When you knock at the door and find her husband at home, then brother, sell insurance.”

Jab. Owen.

“Girls who are homely should wear red stockings.”

Sarcus T. Rachan

“If fashion keep up, the old fashioned girl will soon be in style, - I mean the real old fashioned girl, - Eve, for example.”

Oill Bliver

“A fool and his money are soon married.”

Tpac. Racrutherc.

“Roulette is tough to bet but strip poker is a real skin game.

Me Loy Rattern

We remember hearing Bill Matthews crating on why the pipes under the sink are so crooked, - it went something like this. – “The spheroid surfaces tend to subtend the various molecules contained in the liquid into concentric circles by their eccentric and gyroscopic twirling’s, affect the potential energy of the solution in such a manner that the pipes are continually kept free from the superfluous accumulations which otherwise would lodge there.

“Golf” says the editor of the Fisherman’s magazine” is a game in which the ball lies badly and the player well”.

Dod Rashburn contributed the following verse last February – if it is a bit unseasonable don’t blame him.

“The air is full of fleecy flakes,
 “Old Winter is a hummer,
 “The skaters now are round the lakes
 “Where ‘skeeters’ were last summer.

The latest dance should be called the “Horse Walk” because there is quite a bit of Waggon behind”.

Peb. Owen

“The average young lad has a vocabulary of only five hundred words. It’s a small stock, but think of the turnover.”

Dack Hawson

“The average young lady has a vocabulary of only five hundred words. It’s a small stock, but think of the turnover.”

Dack Hawson

“You don’t have to look at a clothesline these days to see what women are wearing.”

Kike Melly.

“Late hours are bad for one but wonderful for two.”

Back J. Owen

“The only hand I know that has beaten a Royal flush, is two deuces and a razor.

Sal. T. Herns

“There was a young lady of Chester,
Whoes ways made women detest here,
But that’s clearly not so
With the men that you know
Said the blushing good Priest who confessed her”.

Lill P. Windsay

“Some men marry for money and others have no excuse whatever.”

W. Lo. Liver
